

LINDSAY LIEBIG ROCHE ARCHITECTS

KEY PERSONNEL

RICHARD F. GIPSTEIN, AIA Principal

Education: B.A. Fine Arts/Harvard University/1971
Boston Architectural Center, Special Student/1971-72
M.Arch./Harvard Graduate School of Design/1975

Registration:
Architect: CT, RI, NCARB
Interior Design: CT

Associations: American Institute of Architects, AIA - CT
Lawrence & Memorial Hospital Board of Directors
City of New London Façade Review Committee
Rotary Club of New London, Past President
Community Foundation of Southeastern CT, Director Emeritus

Mr. Gipstein has been an architect with the firm for more than 28 years with experience in all phases of architecture. He has extensive experience in historical renovation, institutional, medical, housing, and public assembly projects.

He oversees all phases of design, production and construction administration. He is fully proficient in computer aided drafting (CAD), MasterSpec, and cost control. He is a past member of the New London Historic Districts Commission and The Board of New London Landmarks.

Mr. Gipstein's projects have included:

- U.S. Coast Guard Academy Alumni Center
- New London Public Library Renovations
- Lyman Allyn Art Museum Climate Control
- Nameaug Medical Building
- Bank Street Façade Program (20 Facades)
- Lawrence Memorial Hospital Child Care Center
- Solomon Schechter Gymnasium & Classrooms
- B.P. Learned Mission Renovations & Addition
- United Way Offices & Food Center
- Branford House Interior Restoration
- Lawrence Memorial Hospital Flanders Facility
- Renovation to Botanical Science Building, Conn. College
- Mitchell College Children's Learning Center
- Numerous Private Residences in S.E. Connecticut

LINDSAY LIEBIG ROCHE ARCHITECTS

KEY PERSONNEL

MICHAEL A. COLEMAN, AIA Project Architect

Education: Bachelor of Architecture/Pratt Institute/1974

Registration: CT, MA, NY, NCARB

Associations: American Institute of Architects, CT Society of Architects

Mr. Coleman has more than 30 years experience in all phases of Architecture. He is fully proficient in all phases of architectural design and production for all types of projects from preliminary design to contract administration. He is also the firm's expert in code review and compliance as well as contract document production.

Mr. Coleman's projects have included:

- Old Mystic Fire Department Stations 1&2
- Housing Welcome Center, Newport Naval Base
- M.J. Sullivan Auto Dealerships
- U.S. Coast Guard SCANTS Trainer
- Federal Paper Board Office / Warehouse
- Bradley International Sheraton Ballroom
- Numerous Residences in S.E. Connecticut
- Flanders Fish House
- Twin Haven Senior Housing
- Groton Motor Inn and Suites
- General Electric Cafeteria Renovations
- Century Office Building
- Bank Street Façade Program (20 Facades)
- Calloway Turbosystems Office / Manufacturing